

Measures adopted against COVID-19

To prevent COVID-19, there are some measures adopted in the building.

Thank you for your kind understanding and cooperation in advance.

- Our staff will thoroughly wear masks and disinfect our hands to keep a high level of personal hygiene.
- To have the proper distance, disinfection and ventilation will be applied in the building and transparent panel will be placed in the reception.
- Customers are kindly requested to wear a mask on in the building. Temperature check and disinfection of hands are needed before entering.

■ Arrangement on Auction day

Registration in advance is required for the participation. Please register by the day before the auction. Application can be done online, via email, fax, or during the preview. Admission may be restricted without pre-registration. Online bidding via live bid and absentee bid are also welcome. For telephone bid, it may be declined due to the actual situation.

* Please note that the above contents may change depending on the actual situation at the time of the auction.

Sterilization of your hands is needed.

Temperature check at the entrance is applied.

Gloves are needed before touching the works.

Staff will wear a mask and face guard.

Ventilation at all times will be applied at the auction venue.